If you choose, or you are provided with, a user identification code, password or any other piece of information as part of Our security procedures, you must treat such information as confidential, and you must not disclose it to any third party. ONLINE ORDERING TERMS

The following additional terms apply to customers that are granted access to Online Ordering:

ORDER PROCESS

The information displayed on Online Ordering, including prices, does not constitute an offer by EE or BT to contract or enter into any agreement.

When you send an order by means of Online Ordering for goods and/or services, your order shall constitute an offer by you to purchase the goods and/or services selected. Acceptance of your order shall only take place when EE or BT (as applicable) has confirmed its acceptance in writing to you. Confirmation of receipt does not amount to confirmation of acceptance. EE and BT reserve the right to decline any order in its absolute discretion and/or require you to provide other documents (by electronic or non-electronic means) to supplement your order (such as, but not limited to, a purchase order or evidence of authority to place the order). No binding contract is created until your order has been accepted. Your order can only be accepted if received from the United Kingdom and if you are over the age of 18 and authorised by your business to place orders.

All orders are subject to your Agreement with EE or BT (as applicable).

All goods and/or services displayed on Online Ordering are subject to availability.

EE or BT (as applicable) may ask for a deposit or conduct credit checks as part of processing your order – the details of credit checking are contained in the Agreement.

EE and BT reserve the right to delete an order and not fulfil it where it considers it to be a duplicated order.

Devices will be supplied pre connected to the network.

MINIMUM CONNECTION PERIOD/MINIMUM TERM, UPGRADES AND COMMERCIAL DEALS

EE and BT (as applicable) will be entitled to conduct a check of your order against your Agreement with EE or BT. If your Agreement does not cover the order or your current Agreement has expired EE or BT may require you to sign EE's or BT's standard contract documentation prior to your order being accepted or fulfilled. You are also responsible for checking the terms of your current Agreement to ensure that you understand the commitments you are making when placing an order via Online Ordering. Your order may be subject to additional terms and conditions which EE or BT will confirm to you.

All orders for new or upgrading connections will be subject to a new minimum connection period (referred to as a "Minimum Term" in your contract with BT). You may be entitled to request upgrades via Online Ordering but may not be entitled to an upgrade without paying the relevant charges.

All orders for Devices will require new, upgrading or resigning connections to join or remain on the EE network on the existing or (if agreed by EE or BT) your requested service plan. By placing orders you accept that charges for the services plans will be incurred and agree to pay those charges. EE or BT will apply the relevant service plan to your order according to the terms of your Agreement. EE or BT may need to confirm the details of your required services with you before an order can be accepted.

The pricing for handsets stated on Online Ordering unless otherwise stated, will be the pricing applicable to your Agreement with EE or BT net of any discounts or per connection credits to which you may be entitled.

Whilst EE and BT will endeavour to ensure that the pricing is correct, orders will be processed at the prices in force at the time of processing and EE and BT will only apply discounts or credits in accordance with your Agreement. Processing of any order at a price that does not accord with your Agreement, shall not constitute a variation of your Agreement or a waiver of either party's rights, and either party shall be entitled to have the mistake corrected.

If an order cannot be delivered because you are unable to take delivery then charges may apply for redelivery.

All prices exclude VAT (and delivery charges).

EE's and BT's 14 day money back guarantee does NOT apply to business customers. The cooling off period under the Consumer Contracts (Information, Cancellation & Additional Charges) Regulations 2013 does not apply to business customers, and so you must ensure that you wish to proceed with your order – once placed and accepted, you cannot withdraw it.

GENERAL

The images contained on Online Ordering are for guidance only and actual products may differ from those shown. EE, BT and their suppliers reserve the right to improve products and their specification without prior notice.

Neither EE nor BT shall not be liable to any person for any loss or damage which may arise from the use of any information contained in any of the materials on Online Ordering. EE and BT try to update Online Ordering as frequently as possible. You must ensure that, prior to placing an order, you have checked all relevant details about the goods and/or services you have selected as their relevant details may have changed since you last visited Online Ordering.

Devices/SIMs must not be resold, transferred or otherwise distributed for any reason. EE and BT reserve the right to restrict purchases through Online Ordering.

The terms of your Agreement will prevail, and EE and BT reserve the right to correct any errors or omissions on Online Ordering, which may include a retrospective adjustment of your account or service details.

Additional terms and conditions may apply to certain Equipment ordered via Online Ordering. Where applicable, such terms will be provided with the Equipment (for example, included in the box). Unless otherwise stated in such terms and conditions use of the Equipment shall be deemed to be acceptance of such terms and conditions.
