Therefore, where the Customer wishes to add a Service ("New Facility") which relies on the Customer continuing to purchase an existing Service from EE ("Base Facility"), the Customer agrees that the Minimum Connection Period for the Base Facility will be required to meet the longer of:
- the Minimum Connection Period of the New Facility; and

- 17.6 It is the Customer's responsibility to configure at its own cost any virtual private network not supplied by EE which it may use in conjunction with the Services. EE does not warrant that any virtual private network not specifically approved for use by EE will be compatible with the Services and shall bear no liability for any such lack of compatibility.
18. VARIATIONS BY EE
- 18.1 EE may by issue of a notice to the Customer (sent by post, e-mail or text message) vary the provisions of this Agreement where such variation is required as a result of:
- any legislation, statutory instrument, government regulation, regulatory requirement or licence;
 - changes imposed by third party manufacturers or suppliers; or
 - a change to EE's operations provided such change is also implemented in relation to the majority of EE's business customers.

18.2 Where any variation by EE to this Agreement is of material detriment to the Customer, EE will give the Customer at least one month's written notice of the variation (save where this is not practicable due to a change imposed by a legal or regulatory body) and the Customer will have the right to terminate the relevant Service and/or Equipment in accordance with clause 20.4.

18.3 For the purposes of this clause, the parties agree that an increase in the Charges (as a percentage) equal to or less any increase in the retail prices index (also calculated as a percentage) or any other statistical measure of inflation published by any government body authorised to publish measures of inflation from time to time, in the 12 month period before any increase shall not constitute a material detriment to the Customer.

18.4 Subject to clause 18.2, EE may also from time to time vary:

- a. the Charges; and/or
- b. the prices, terms and conditions set out within the Price Guide.

Where the Charges are set out in the Commercial Terms, such variation shall take effect from the date the variation is notified to take effect to the Customer. The Customer agrees that variations to the Price Guide shall take effect from the date the variation is published at www.ee.co.uk/business/terms and that such publication shall constitute adequate notification of the variation. It shall be the responsibility of the Customer to review the Price Guide periodically. EE recommends that the review of the Price Guide is carried out by the Customer no less than every 30 days.

18.5 Subject to clause 18.2, EE may at any time, withdraw any Service or Equipment where it is either no longer able to provide the Service or Equipment because its nominated third party supplier no longer provides the Service or Equipment to EE, or where EE has decided that the Service or Equipment is no longer suitable to its business operations, provided it gives the Customer at least 60 days' notice of such withdrawal. The Customer shall not be liable to pay any Termination Charges in respect of the relevant Service or Equipment where EE exercises its rights under this clause.

19.3 Where a User has caused the Customer to be in breach of any of its obligations under clause 10, EE may suspend the

Services to that specific User, but where practicable shall use its reasonable endeavours to notify the Customer in advance of such suspension to allow the opportunity for the alleged breach to be remedied.

19.4 Without prejudice to its other rights under this Agreement, EE may additionally suspend the Customer and/or all the Users' access to the relevant Service(s) where it has not received payment of outstanding Charges (including any accrued interest) within 7 days of the due date of the invoice, and where those Charges are not being disputed in good faith, or where any agreed credit limit on the Charges has been exceeded by the Customer.

19.5 The Customer shall remain liable for all Charges during any period of suspension, and where the suspension has been implemented under clauses 19.3 or 19.4, the Customer shall also pay all reasonable costs and expenses incurred by EE in the implementation of the suspension and a Suspension Lifting Fee per suspended SIM Card. This right to terminate ends 60 days after the date on which the variation became effective.

20.5 The Customer shall notify EE immediately in the event the Customer undergoes a change of control and EE shall have the right to terminate the Agreement by giving at least 30 days' written notice to the Customer in the event of such change of control, provided that EE exercises its right of termination within 6 months of receipt of the Customer's notice. For the purposes of this sub-clause, "control" shall have the meaning given in section 1124, Corporation Tax Act 2010.
