8. Call charges vary depending on the time of your call as well as other optional selections that you may choose. You will be notified of call costs and have the option to end the call at that point without incurring any charge. Please see our 'Non-Standard Service' brochure for further details and for definitions of our "normal working hours" and "extended working hours".
9. Please see ee.co.uk/ukcalling for a list of Service Charges.

Please go to the "Help & Support" section of our website, ee.co.uk for details around "non-standard" service charging. This includes charges for numbers starting with 05, 070, 09 and 118. Calls to these numbers are subject to a 1 minute minimum call charge unless otherwise stated. Remember that calls to these numbers are not included in your monthly allowance.

Points to note

The legal stuff you need to know:

Mobile Broadband (18-month) and Mobile Broadband (30-day) are for use in the UK only. For Mobile Broadband (18-month) you'll need to promise to stay with us for 18 months. For both you'll need to pass our standard credit check. You'll need a compatible laptop, an enabled device like a Mobile Broadband USB stick and mobile broadband coverage. You can check your coverage at ee.co.uk. You can't use your plan to make internet phone calls or for peer to peer file sharing. If you use your plan outside the UK, we'll add any roaming charges to your pay monthly account. For Mobile Broadband (30-day), if you decide to upgrade or cancel your contract you'll need to give 30 days notice to us by phone.

The £7.50 plans come with a fair use policy of 1GB of data a month. The £10 plans come with a fair use policy of 2GB of data a month. The £15 plans come with a fair use policy of 5GB of data a month. We'll monitor how much you send and receive each calendar month so that we can protect our network for all our Mobile Broadband customers. Until 1 November 2012, if you use more than your fair use policy amount, we won't charge you any more, but we may restrict how you can use your plan.

From 1 November 2012, once you have exceeded your inclusive data monthly allowance, your service will not be restricted but it will cost you a flat rate of £3 a day for out of bundle usage. You will be charged once for each day you use out of bundle data between the date you exceed your inclusive data monthly allowance and the date of your next bill. The total will be added to your next monthly bill. You won't be charged this rate if you don't use the service on a particular day. For this £3 daily flat rate you can continue to use your plan as normal and you can use as much data as you want that day. If you joined one of our plans before 24 August 2012, you will be unaffected by this and the fair use policy outlined above will continue to apply.

Mobile Broadband (18-month) unlimited WiFi: You'll also get access to our preferred WiFi partner's WiFi network. The BT Wi-F terms, including those about acceptable use, will also apply to you. You can see these at www.btwifi.co.uk/terms-and-conditions. As we aren't the provider of the WiFi service, we aren't responsible for whether there is WiFi available where you want it, or for the quality of that service. We might swap your WiFi service to another preferred partner in future, provided that you get the same experience. There is a 3GB a month fair use policy. If you go over the 3GB, we may monitor your usage and suspend your usage or withdraw the offer from your account.

General

- Your inclusive minutes allowance (shown on your bill as 'inclusive time' or 'allowance') is the number of inclusive minutes included in your monthly plan. Your allowance includes voice, fax and data calls (but excludes calls to the EE WAP service and calls made whilst abroad). Numbers prefixed with 08 are not included in your allowance.
- Fair Use Policy: To ensure the provision of a quality service to all our customers and to ensure that the behaviour of some does not disadvantage the majority of our customers, we may request customers who make excessive use of inclusive calls to reduce their usage of these calls. If usage continues to be excessive, EE may move these users to another plan from a selected range, and they may lose the right to move back to that original plan. EE currently considers 'excessive' use to be more than 3000 minutes of inclusive calls per month. We reserve the right to vary this policy, but we will notify you if we do.
- If your inclusive minute allowance runs out during a call, we will charge you for the remainder of that call.
- If a pay monthly plan has rollover, unused inclusive minutes from one monthly billing period are 'rolled over' for use during the next monthly billing period, up to the amount of inclusive minutes in your monthly allowance. Unused inclusive minutes are not refundable. Any inclusive minutes we may allow you are limited to the specific circumstances in which it was given. You cannot add it to any allowances you may already have from previous promotions.
- If you move between any of these pay monthly plans with rollover, you can carry forward any unused allowance from your previous plan to your next plan.
- The allowance you have used is worked out when we print your bill. You can get an estimate of the amount you have used by calling the EE account enquiry service (dial 150). The estimate includes the inclusive minutes you have used up to the time of your enquiry in the current billing period. If there is a difference between the enquiry service estimates and the amounts shown on the bill, the latter takes precedence.
- When you join a EE pay monthly plan, you should be sent your first bill within 2 weeks of becoming a customer. Your first month's charge and inclusive minutes allowance will be proportionate to the number of days from your date of joining to the date of the bill. All monthly charges and inclusive minute allowances will be proportionate to part months used, except where this would conflict with any other clause of the agreement.
- Per minute charging applies to all types of chargeable calls (unless otherwise stated). Charging starts when a call is answered by a person or an answering device. The call is billed at the rate applicable at the start of the call. However, if the call exceeds two hours in length and crosses into a different part of the day (for example, from 'daytime' to 'evening'), the remainder of the call will be charged at the new rate.
 - A call ends when:
 - a) you end the call on your device;
 - b) 16 seconds after your calling device loses signal for any reason (note: we continue to maintain the call in case your device re-establishes a signal with our network within this period); or
 - c) you do not end the call on your device, up to 30 seconds after the last third party you were connected to has ended their call.
 - On the bill, the charge for each call is rounded to the nearest tenth of a penny. The total of each of the sub-categories of 'call charges' and 'other usage charges' will be rounded to the nearest penny on the bill, then added together before VAT is added to this final figure. All chargeable calls will be subject to a minimum charge per call of 2p unless otherwise stated.
 - Free voicemail retrieval applies to the retrieval of messages when using the EE service in the UK.
 - Diverted calls are charged at the local or national call rate or, if appropriate, the relevant mobile or special number rate. Diverted calls are not included in any inclusive time you may have.
 - Additional charges may apply whilst using your EE phone abroad.
 - Additional charges (e.g. international call charges, premium rates etc) can be found on www.ee.co.uk/priceguides or our 'Non standard charges' leaflet.
 - EE reserves the right to vary or withdraw any individual or additional service with 30 days notice.
 - A text message consists of up to 160 characters. If you send a longer message, you will be charged for two or more text messages as appropriate.
 - Total amounts on your bill are rounded to two decimal places, so the value may be a penny higher or lower.
