

STAY INFORMED

Keep abreast of what's happening in the world around you.

Whether you're trying to keep up with the local news or wanting to curl up with the latest John Grisham novel, the internet allows you to instantly access information, helping you stay informed. You can download magazines, newspapers and books on the go making sure you've always got your finger on the pulse.

"MY FRIENDS ALWAYS KNEW WHAT WAS HAPPENING BEFORE I DID. NOW I CAN GET INVOLVED IN THE CONVERSATION."

Get the latest news

In this digital age the news is available as soon as it happens so you don't have to wait till the evening, or get yesterday's news in tomorrow's newspapers! Most news websites also allow you to post comments at the end of articles so you can have your say and share your opinion with the world.

Taster

Check out today's news on www.bbc.co.uk/news or go to www.number10.gov.uk for the latest political information from Downing Street.

On the go

There are lots of apps that let you check the weather reports, such as the Met Office and AccuWeather, so you'll always know if you're going to need that umbrella.

Reading books and magazines

With so many publications and books available online you can afford to ditch those cumbersome magazines and hardbacks that clutter up your coffee table. You can find digital versions of your favourite magazines such as Good Housekeeping, Hello! The Radio Times and 1000s of e-books. Being in the know isn't just great for conversation, it could help you win the pub quiz too!

Taster

Go to www.isubscribe.co.uk to see the wide range of magazines available to download or get an online version of Reader's Digest at www.readersdigest.co.uk

On the go

Check out the Goodreads app on your smartphone for book reviews and recommendations or download an e-book using the Amazon app.

Listen and learn

If you're not a fan of reading you can always have someone read to you instead. Thousands of popular books are now available in audio so you can listen when it's convenient for you. Or you could try a 'podcast' – this is an audio version of a programme. From current affairs to comedy shows and The Archers – there's something for everyone.

Taster

Download an audio book at www.audible.co.uk or www.waterstones.com, you can find classics or that new fictional novel everyone is talking about...

On the go

Search HowStuffWorks on your smartphone and subscribe to podcasts that range from interesting and factual to weird and wacky. Or find out whether your favourite show or newspaper offers a podcast.