For calls to 084, 087, 09 and 118 numbers you'll be charged the EE access charge plus the applicable service charge. See <https://ee.co.uk/help/help-new/billing-usage-and-top-up/call-text-and-data-charges/charges-for-calling-non-geographic-numbers>.

Price increases

We may increase any prices at any time. If we do, you may be able to end your service and claim back any unused credit on your account. See our terms and conditions (<https://ee.co.uk/help/help-new/terms-and-conditions/pay-as-you-go/network>) for more information.

2. Speed of the internet access service and remedies in case of problems

Mobile data speeds

Your speed will depend on location, number of users and plan. Use our mobile coverage checker to see a detailed breakdown of network coverage in your area <https://coverage.ee.co.uk/coverage/ee>

Customers joining EE on a Pay As You Go Plan from 10th March 2023 will have speeds capped at 25Mbps.

If your speed is regularly lower than expected you should contact us to resolve. You also have other legal options, see <https://www.citizensadvice.org.uk/>. For more details, see our terms and conditions <https://ee.co.uk/help/help-new/terms-and-conditions/pay-as-you-go/network>

3. Duration, renewal, and termination

Duration:

If you have a plan, your plan will last for 7, 14, 30 or 90 days depending on plan chosen. The plan will start as soon as you set up direct card payments or top up enough to cover the cost of your plan, insert the SIM card into your device and make your first call, text or use data.

There is no minimum term if you do not have a plan.

See our terms and conditions <https://ee.co.uk/help/help-new/terms-and-conditions/pay-as-you-go/network> and <https://ee.co.uk/help/help-new/terms-and-conditions/pay-as-you-go/plans> for more information.

Renewal:

If you have a plan, your plan will last for 7, 14, 30 or 90 days depending on plan chosen, and will automatically renew after this if you have set up recurring card payments or have enough credit unless you cancel your plan. If you don't want the plan to recur, you can tell us any time before the relevant plan duration ends.

Termination:

You can cancel your service at any time in accordance with our terms and conditions. Our website sets out details of how you may contact us to cancel.

If you cancel, you'll not be able to claim back any unused credit on your account except in certain circumstances and you cannot claim back any amount in respect of unused allowances.

You may be able to cancel your service and claim back any unused credit if we have made changes to your service.

You must make a connection action (for example, topping up your account, using data, making a chargeable call, sending a chargeable text) at least once every 180 days. If you do not, your SIM card will be disconnected from the network, and you'll not be able to use your service. You'll also lose your mobile phone number and forfeit any credit on your account at the time of disconnection.

4. Features for customers with disabilities

You can find out more about the products and help and advice available on our website at <https://ee.co.uk/our-company/corporate-responsibility/being-responsible/sharing-connectivity/digital-living/digital-for-all>

5. Other relevant information

For information on the right to cancel, see section 9 of the Pre-Service Information document.

See our terms and conditions (<https://ee.co.uk/help/help-new/terms-and-conditions/pay-as-you-go/network>) for more information.

Price increases

We may increase any prices at any time. If we do, you may be able to end your service and claim back any unused credit on your account. See our terms and conditions <https://ee.co.uk/help/help-new/terms-and-conditions/pay-as-you-go/network> for more information.

3. Service Characteristics

Mobile Data Speeds

- Your speed will depend on location, number of users and plan
- Use our mobile coverage checker to see a detailed breakdown of network coverage in your area <https://coverage.ee.co.uk/coverage/ee>
- Customers joining EE on a Pay As You Go Plan from 10th March 2023 will have speeds capped at 25Mbps.

4. Delivery of service

SIM

- Your new SIM will be sent with your device (if you order one) or will be delivered within 2-5 working days (if you order a Pay As You Go SIM only).
- Depending on where you make your purchase your SIM may be an eSIM. Your device must be eSIM compatible.
- You'll need to request a PAC code from your current provider to transfer your existing number to EE. See Switching information in next section.
- If you're ordering just a SIM from EE, you'll need a compatible device for EE mobile and your device may need unlocking.

Payment options:

Card Payments: You can buy a plan by setting up direct card payments using a credit or debit card in My EE.

Top Up: Alternatively, you can top up your credit in My EE, by text or by phone and can top up using an E-voucher by text or phone.

For more information, see <https://ee.co.uk/help/mobile/manage-use/pay-as-you-go/top-up-my-phone>

5. Switching to EE

Switching your mobile to EE

- Choose your EE mobile plan online and during the order process you'll be asked if you're switching from another mobile company.
- To keep your existing number – you'll need give us your PAC code which can be obtained by texting PAC to 65075. We'll let your old provider know you're leaving and switch over your number. It might take up to 48 hours.
- To get a new number - you'll be asked to enter your STAC code to let your old network provider know you're leaving. Simply text STAC to 75075 to get your STAC code. We'll let your old provider know you're leaving. You can use your new EE SIM as soon as it arrives.
- If you're switching to EE all steps can be completed for you whilst you're in one of our EE stores. You can choose to do this at a later point.

6. Duration, renewal and termination of contract

Duration:

If you have a plan, your plan will last for 7, 14, 30 or 90 days depending on plan chosen. The plan will start as soon as you set up direct card payments or top up enough to cover the cost of your plan, insert the SIM card into your device and make your first call, text or use data.

There is no minimum term if you do not have a plan.

Renewal:

If you have a plan, your plan will last for 7, 14, 30 or 90 days depending on plan chosen, and will automatically renew after this if you have set up recurring card payments or have enough credit unless you cancel your plan. If you don't want the plan to recur, you can tell us any time before the 30 days ends.

If you don't have enough credit and haven't set up recurring card payments at the end of the plan duration days, we'll not apply the new plan until you have enough credit. Once you do, we will take payment and give you the new plan immediately. If 30 days after your previous plan expired (the "Renewal Period"), you have still not topped up enough, we will not make any further attempts to take payment and will cancel your plan. You can tell us at any point during the Renewal Period that you would like to cancel your plan in accordance with our terms and conditions.

Termination:

You can cancel your service at any time in accordance with our terms and conditions. Our website sets out details of how you may contact us to cancel.

If you cancel, you'll not be able to claim back any unused credit on your account except in certain circumstances and you cannot claim back any amount in respect of unused allowances.

You may be able to cancel your service and claim back any unused credit if we have made changes to your service. See our terms and conditions for more information.

You must make a connection action (for example, topping up your account, using data, making a chargeable call, sending a chargeable text) at least once every 180 days. If you do not, your SIM card will be disconnected from the network and you'll not be able to use your service. You'll also lose your mobile phone number and forfeit any credit on your account at the time of disconnection. See our terms and conditions for more information.

See our terms and conditions <https://ee.co.uk/help/help-new/terms-and-conditions/pay-as-you-go/network> and <https://ee.co.uk/help/help-new/terms-and-conditions/pay-as-you-go/plans> for more information.

7. Security

If we suspect there's been, or is likely to be, a security incident, we may lock your My EE online account to protect your details. We'll ask you to change your password before letting you log back in. You can also speak to a member of our Customer Service team on 150 if you need some support or guidance.

8. Remedies, complaints handling and dispute resolution

If you have issues with coverage, speed or other aspects of your service, you should contact us to resolve. You also have other legal options, see <https://www.citizensadvice.org.uk/>.

You may be able to take a phone number with you when you leave our network. Please see our website at www.ee.co.uk and <https://ee.co.uk/help/help-new/managing-and-using-my-account/leaving-ee/how-do-i-cancel-my-contract-with-ee> for more information on transferring.

Our Customer Complaints Code (see <https://ee.co.uk/help/help-new/safety-and-security/protecting-your-information/complaints-code-of-practice>) tells you how to contact us to sort out a problem and how we will deal with any complaint or dispute. You may be able to refer a matter to an alternative dispute resolution service to get an independent opinion. More details are given in our Customer Complaints Code and our terms and conditions.

9. Right to cancel

In-store: We don't offer a change-of-mind policy in store but, if you're experiencing coverage issues or our coverage doesn't meet your expectations, you can return your purchase within the first 14 days to any of our stores. See <https://ee.co.uk/help/help-new/orders-and-delivery/cancelling-orders-and-contracts/how-to-cancel-a-contract-within-14-days> and <https://ee.co.uk/help/help-new/orders-and-delivery> for details.

Online or by phone: If you purchase through a distance sales channel (such as online or by phone), you'll have a cooling off period to change your mind and cancel:

If you've purchased a device: you have 14 days from the day after delivery of your device to change your mind and cancel. See <https://ee.co.uk/help/help-new/orders-and-delivery/cancelling-orders-and-contracts/how-to-cancel-a-contract-within-14-days> and <https://ee.co.uk/help/help-new/orders-and-delivery> for details. You'll need to return the device. You may be charged for any services used before you cancel.

If you've got a Pay As You Go SIM only plan: You have 14 days from the day after your service starts to change your mind and cancel. See <https://ee.co.uk/help/help-new/orders-and-delivery/cancelling-orders-and-contracts/how-to-cancel-a-contract-within-14-days> and <https://ee.co.uk/help/help-new/orders-and-delivery> for details. You may be charged for any services used before you cancel.

10. Data protection

We need to collect and use personal information so we can set you up and provide you with our products or services. This includes when you register, buy or use one of our products or services, if you express an interest in our products and services, and if you download and register on one of our apps. If you don't provide us with the correct information, we may be unable to provide you with the product or service.

The type of personal information we may need includes your contact details and other information to confirm your identity and communications with us, such as your name, gender, address, phone number, date of birth, email address and a security question and answer. If you choose to buy something from us we will need your payment and financial information too. We also collect and use certain personal information when you use our services, such as your IP address and other online identifiers.

If you tell us you have a disability or otherwise need support, we will note that you're a vulnerable customer, but only if you give your permission or if we must for legal or regulatory reasons.

Further information can be found in our privacy policy which can be accessed on our website at ee.co.uk/eeprivacycentre

11. Customers with disabilities

You can find out more about the products and help and advice available on our website at: <https://ee.co.uk/our-company/corporate-responsibility/being-responsible/sharing-connectivity/digital-living/digital-for-all>

12. Accessibility

If you make a call from your mobile and wi-fi calling is the connection you've selected, or mobile connection is not available, emergency services will not be able to automatically access your caller location. You will need to provide this information.
